

אני לדודי לדודי לי

When everything seems to be
Crashing down on you!
The people you've always counted on
Just aren't pulling through!
You begin to give up,
But before you do
Just look up to the hills
And the great mountains, will you?
Do they still stand with pride?
Have they collapsed too?
For the Navi Yeshayah says
Hashem promises you:
"Even if the mountains will collapse
And the hills too
My kindness will never depart from you!" (Haftorah Ki Seitzei, Yeshayah 54:10)
For what is it all worth?
The mighty heavens, the whole Earth
If not for you, each and every Jew,
For did I not create it all just for you?!
